ANDY TORO’S 809 is Season High at Canyon Lanes

by Frank Wieler

CARAZON — The house went wild! Paul and Earline chicken danced, Jan did a pirouette and Ming passed out candy canes. The house went wild last Tuesday when Andy Toro rolled the highest score of the season at Canyon Lanes.

General Manager NORS-BEY RER GUNNELS was so excited as Andy kept striking that he walked up and down the lanes after each game with a large card raised above his head with large black numerals advertising Andy’s scores. GAME ONE: 279, GAME TWO: 264, GAME THREE: 266, SERIES: 809. Old school score keeping.

Why such excitement over an 809? Excitement usually reserved for a 900 score, but he couldn’t. He shrugged his shoulders and was as amazed as all of his fellow league bowlers. At a time when a 600 series is earth shattering, an 800 series is earth shattering.

After Andy finished bowling I asked him to explain his unusually high score but he couldn’t. He usually scores 500 for three games. With Andy’s score, two seasons have been finished (one 8 gamer). Hope to see you in 2017.

EL MONTE — Who would have dreamed that One Hundred and Two of So. Cal’s greatest bowlers would show up at Action Lanes around noon on New Years Day to put up their bucks and roll their rockets? Well, they did! Ninety-nine finished all 8 games. Seventeen cashed in the main event plus individual side-pots and blocks. The first champ of 2017 was Bobby Campagnale, posting an 1805, 44 pins over second place Steve Smith. Low to cash for $100.00 was Val Wise, 1652. Total paid to the top 17 was over $6000.00!

Congratulations to Andy Toro, my nominee for “CANYON LANES BOWLER OF THE YEAR”.

Watch for more “pin action” at “Action Lanes”!
In 1942 America, the war effort was in full swing. Individuals and organizations were coalescing around the troops, and one unique organization was being formed by a favorite American sport: Bowling.

Seventy-five years ago, officials representing every facet of the sport of bowling met to coordinate efforts to support the troops -- bringing together all the sport's integers to provide the most complete approach to the campaign. Thus, BVL, then known as “The Bowlers Victory Legion” was born.

BVL’s first Administrator, A. L. “Ebby” Ebersole noted in the minutes of that meeting:

“The Bowlers Victory Legion was organized on September 26, 1942 at the American Bowling Congress (ABC) office in Milwaukee when all segments of the bowling family met to unify their support of the war bond sales and other service-oriented endeavors such as the Red Cross and the USO. Besides ABC, the gathering included representatives of the Women’s International Bowling Congress, the High School Bowling Congress, the National Duckpin Bowling Congress, the Bowling Proprietors’ Association of America, the Billiard and Bowling Institute of America and the Candlepin and Rubberband Duckpin Groups and manufacturers.

E. H. Baumgarten of ABC was elected chairman and A. L. Ebersole of the Duckpin Bowling Congress the vice chairman.” -- A. L. Ebersole

Subsequently, Ebersole was appointed as BVL’s first Administrative Officer and oversaw BVL’s beginnings: The first projects focused on improving morale for troops overseas and insuring that wounded service men receive appropriate and timely healthcare. To support morale, BVL directed the delivery of 400,000 decks of playing cards, 325,000 sports guides, almost 100,000 fishing kits and a variety of sports equipment. Additionally, three medical evacuation planes were purchased to ferry the wounded home from the battlefields of Europe -- known as the “Wings of Mercy” project.

When the war ended BVL leadership recognized that the need to support those who have served our country was more important than ever and thus renewed their mission of recreation and health care for hospitalized veterans. BVL then began working alongside the forefathers of today’s recreation specialists. In an interview with an acknowledged pioneer in the field for the Department of Veterans Affairs, Dr. Bernath Eugene Phillips, writer Jeff Mansfield quoted Phillips recalling work for the VA in 1945, “The BVL was one of the first (organizations) that I got associated with when I went to Washington...we used the BVL and started a bowling tournament among all VA hospitals. The first BVL tournament was held in 1947 and seven of the 31 VA hospitals were entered. (Former BVL Executive Director) A. L. Ebersole deserves the credit (for bringing this recreation therapy to the veterans)” of the 31 VA hospitals were entered. (Former BVL Executive Director) A. L. Ebersole deserves the credit (for bringing this recreation therapy to the veterans).”

In 1947, the Director of Athletic Service of the Veterans Administration James E. Pixlee wrote this about BVL, “It is impossible to overstate the value of the aid afforded by the BVL.”

When Ebersole retired in 1974, BVL had earned recognition as a leader in recreation therapy for veterans. That distinction was only furthered under the guidance of the National Bowling Council in the ensuing years, which assumed the task as administrator of the sport’s charity, with the following acting as Chairs of the BVL Committee:

President Truman at Inaugural BVL Tournament

Alberta Crowe (WIBC) 1974-1984
Agnes Duffy (WIBC) 1984-1988
Gladyse Banker (WIBC) 1988-1989
Elaine Hagin (WIBC) 1989-1996

In 1996, when the National Bowling Council disbanded, the BVL Committee voted to organize as an independent entity, with Elaine Hagin at the helm. BVL was then lead by:

Elaine Hagin (WIBC) 1996-2005
Elaine Hagin (USBC) 2005-2008
Darlene Baker (USBC) 2008-2014
John LaSpina (BPAA) 2014-present

“BVL has evolved in its structure over the years to keep pace with the changing nature of veterans’ healthcare and recreation therapy techniques, as well as changes within our sport,” explains current BVL Board of Directors Chairman John LaSpina.

“BVL was created through the unity of all members of the sport of bowling,” continues LaSpina. “That was the reason for our success. We want and need to get back to our roots. Thanks to our new campaign to encourage bowling center operators to participate in the BVL effort through ‘Care.Commit.Contribute,’ and to our innovative partnerships with industry corporate members, we’re headed in the right direction. But there’s much more work to be done.”

VA Secretary McDonald addressed the industry at Bowl Expo last June, attending the convention to personally thank the sport for its commitment to America’s veterans noting, “Among our many partners, the Bowlers to Veterans Link stands out as a true pioneer. Years before Omar Bradley reached out to Americans to enlist their help in caring for Veterans, the bowlers of America reached out with a helping hand to America’s Veterans and service members. There are a few Veterans organizations that have been helping Veterans longer than BVL, but I’d be hard pressed to name any other organization that has.”

LaSpina concludes, “We know we are doing great things for America’s veterans -- our services are truly valued by our partners at the Department of Veterans Affairs. However, in order to keep up with the tremendous need for recreational and therapeutic programs and services we have to step up our game; and we’re working hard to do just that.”

WOODLAND HILLS — Think big.

Yes, think big when it comes to what can be accomplished in the new year.

Last week, I encouraged bowlers to chase their goals, whether it be their first 200 game, their first 300 game, their first 600 series, their first 700 series or their first 800 series. Or whatever goal they have in mind.

One never knows what a bowler can achieve with a little skill and some accommodating pin action.

Oftentimes, bowlers can be absolutely shocked at the results.

One bowler who was duly amazed at his own proficiency was Charles Mandel, who put on a striking performance in July 2013. At the time, Charles was a very good bowler who was averaging 202 in his “Viva Las Vegas” league at AMF Woodlake Lanes in Woodland Hills.

Charles had not rolled a 300 but he had ripped off a 763 series so he was definitely a worthy anchor for his league team.

So what kind of night did Charles have on Lanes 31 and 32, the last two lanes of the bowling center?

The right-handed marksman rolled games of 277, 278 and 290 for a remarkable 845 series – one of the most notable highlights of the 2013 bowling season in the San Fernando Valley.

That effort allowed Charles, a former baseball standout for Valley College and Cal State Northridge, to eclipse his best series by a staggering 82 pins. That’s EIGHTY-TWO pins. Most bowlers would be happy to surpass their best series by a single pin. He missed the head pin on his first shot in the third frame of the first game, leaving the 1-3-9, which he converted. All the rest of his shots nailed the pocket.

Charles, 61 at the time, modestly credited “being in a zone and luck” for his outsized effort, but teammate Shawn Azar gave him his due. “He had one bad shot and all the others were perfect,” Azar said. So bowlers, remember: It’s OK to think big. One never knows when that “big one” will happen. Just ask Charles Mandel.

A SURPRISE VISIT

By Carol Mancini

Saturday (Dec. 30) afternoon I was trolling the T.V. channels and came upon a Huell Howser travel show, exploring Northern California. His objective was the old Mendocino light house. It clicked something in my memory bank!

In the 70’s and 80’s Marlene Fondren was the General Manager of Friendly Hills Bowl. We spent a lot of time together on the San Gabriel Valley W.B.A. Board, plus traveling to many W.I.B.C. tournaments. She and her husband were Harley riders. Me and my husband were GOLD WING riders. So we had lots of stories to share.

In 1990 Marge Miyoda organized a group (27?) of bowlers to fly to Japan and compete with their clubs. Another adventure we shared with friends.

Marlene had been touring Northern California for a while looking for a place to retire. She found Shelter Cove, near Mendocino.

Thru her many letters she detailed saving an old light house. She organized a group that actually took the light house apart and moved it to a new, safer location.

Imagine, watching a 10 year old Huell Howser show, and my mind questioning if that light house was Marlene’s light house. At the end of the show the “movers” were introduced. There was my friend Marlene, white haired and same enthusiastic smile.

Marlene touched bowlers, bikers and beacons. Marlene has passed on, but she brightened my New Year’s Eve and makes me thankful to be here to share her story.

Share your memories in 2017!
