Peggy Elias, Wife of PBA Founder Eddie Elias, Dies

CHICAGO — Peggy Elias, the wife of the Professional Bowlers Association founder Eddie Elias, died Tuesday in Akron, Ohio. She was 72. Eddie and the former Margaret (Peggy) Emerson both were Akron natives. She was not only renowned for her beauty, but had a wonderful singing voice that attracted a talent scout after she represented Ohio in the 1964 Miss America pageant. She eventually landed a spot with the singing group, the Pennsylvanians. In an article by the late hall of fame bowling writer Dick Evans in 2008, Evans wrote that Peggy called Eddie, who had already established a reputation as one of the nation’s leading personal-al representation agents and career managers for several well-known athletes and show business personalities, to see if he could help her jump start her career in New York. Eddie arranged a meet-up with the William Morris Agency which led Peggy to a successful career in modeling and commercials. What started as a professional relationship soon turned into a romance and the couple soon began dating. They were married on Nov. 21, 1968, in New York City, and they reigned as one of Akron’s most celebrated couples for nearly 30 years until Eddie’s death in November 1995, six months after he suffered a major stroke. After returning to her hometown, Peggy started her second career as a devoted mother of the couple’s two daughters, Rainy and Morgan. Peggy continued on page 8

Graham Fach’s 2016 Barbasol PBA Players Championship Win Was Start of Milestone Season for Canadian Bowlers

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Graham Fach of Guelph, Ontario, placed his name in Professional Bowlers Association history by becoming the first Canadian to win a PBA Tour title when he won the 2016 Barbasol PBA Players Championship. But little did he know that he would be just the opening act in bringing Canada into the international bowling spotlight for the first time in nearly 60 years.

Fach will return to defend his title against a field of approximately 100 PBA Tour stars when the Players Championship returns to Wayne Webb’s Columbus Bowl Feb. 6-12. Bowling in only his second PBA Tour event, the 24-year-old Fach was nearly perfect in winning his first PBA Tour title, and a PBA major championship, when he defeated top qualifier Ryan Ciminelli, 279-244, in front of a capacity crowd after advancing to the title match with a 247-244 win over Australia’s Sam Cooley in the semifinal match. "It’s a great feeling to win against players of this caliber,” Fach said after his win. “They want to win, but obviously I want to win, too. I wasn’t sure I would be able to compete out here, but the only way to find out is to come out and try.”

After going 57 years without a PBA Tour title, in a matter of a few months Canada would have two titlists. Also bowling in his second PBA Tour event in Columbus, 23-year-old Francois Lavoie placed his name in the record books as the second Canadian to win a PBA Tour title – and a major as well – when he won the U.S. Open in November in Las Vegas. Lavoie, a Quebec City native, also bowed the first nationally-television 300 game in U.S. Open history en route to the win, becoming the first international player and only the 26th player to bowl a televised perfect game.

With their historic victories, Fach and Lavoie set up the first-ever race between two Canadians for PBA Rookie of the Year honors. The only Canadian who has ever won a PBA national album was George Lambert IV who was selected as the 2009-10 Steve Nagy Sportsmanship Award winner. In December, Lavoie continued on page 8
MONTCLAIR — Neither rain, sleet nor recent record floods could keep bowlers away from competing in the Annual Bowlers to Veterans Link Tournament (BVL)!

On January 22, 2017, Montclair Bowlium held their annual BVL tournament. The event was open to USBC Members of San Gabriel Valley. Participants were placed into categories consisting of men, women and youth, with the respective category winners having the option to compete in the California State Finals held in Manteca, California on March 25, 2017.

According to Chris Pilios, President of the San Gabriel Valley Bowling Association and Chairman of the BVL Committee, the tournament has been going on for over 70 years. Its goal is to help raise money for California disabled veterans. “Everything we do is volunteer work and everything we raffle goes directly to them. As always, we have a wonderful turnout. My sincerest respect and admiration go out to those bowlers who participated in this memorable event.” Chris Pilios, himself a veteran of the United States Army from 1956 to 1959, states he will continue to volunteer his time and effort to this worthwhile program.

The event began with opening remarks from BVL President Chris Pilios followed by the Pledge of Allegiance and a rendition of the Star Spangle Banner. All former military veterans were asked to stand at the approach and given a special recognition. An impressive display of group participation was exhibited by the Azusa Bowling Club. Many members proudly wore their black and white Azusa Club uniform in a show of unity and spirit. The highlight of the day came when bowler John Van Metre, Jr. bowled a perfect 300! Chris Pilios later commented, “We were very pleased with the number of bowlers in attendance, especially with the extreme rain conditions. Again, I applaud all the bowlers who showed their enthusiasm, as well as their patriotism.”

The success of the recent BVL bowling event was made possible by the efforts of many volunteers, including San Gabriel Valley USBC Board Members Linda Johnson-Pilios, Lynda Lapp, Annette Riccelli, Phil Lapp, Dave Prechtl and Scott Poddig. Special thanks go out to Andrew Rietta for managing the tournament brackets and side pots. The San Gabriel Valley USBC and BVL wish to express their gratitude to Billy Myers, Jr. and Al Macabuhay of Bowlium Lanes, for without their sponsorship and generosity, this tournament wouldn’t have been possible. “Sempre Fi!”

US Bowling Purchases Murrey International in Deal of Manufacturers

by Fred Eisenhammer

CHINO — It may not seem significant for the everyday bowler, but it’s definitely a big deal for bowling centers across the country.

The deal was struck Jan. 5, according to David Frewing, the president of US Bowling. “It went down in a matter of just a few weeks,” he said.

Murrey, founded in 1938 by the late Gordon Murrey, is known worldwide for manufacturing bowling-lane equipment.

On its website, Murray cites the company’s bowling-lane installation at Google (now Alphabet Inc.) headquarter in Mt. View, Calif. It also lists customers such as PINZ Bowling Center in Studio City, the U.S. Air Force and Navy, Walt Disney, ABC, Fox and the San Francisco Giants.

Frewing said US Bowling now will be able to manufacture “everything” bowing-wise with the addition of Murray. “The lanes were the last missing piece,” he said. He added that “essentially there was no overlap” in customer base. US Bowling, founded in 1994, is the largest independent builder of new bowling centers in the country.

Among its clients, US Bowling has built 23 locations for international, as they have been providing world-class bowling-lane equipment. “Our intention is to keep [Murrey] intact as much as possible,” Frewing said.

In a press release, US Bowling said it “will also incorporate Murray’s new MGM5000 Pinspotter to their line of bowling products. When added to the line, it will give US Bowling the ability to offer customers a complete new bowling center package to compete with any competitor around the world.”

US Bowling has about 20 employees and will add about eight of Murrey’s workers to the company.

“Our intention is to keep [Murrey] intact as much as possible,” Frewing said.

One of Murray’s employees who will be retained is Bill Snoberger, Murray’s national sales manager. “We have a long running relationship with Murray International, as they have been providing world-class bowling lanes to us for nearly 15 years,” Frewing said. “We are extremely excited about the addition of Bill and what he brings to our organization.

Over the next six weeks, everything we’ve acquired in this transaction will move to US Bowling’s facility, 45 miles to the east.”

Said Snoberger: “I have known Daroll Frewing almost 30 years, long before he started US Bowling. US Bowling was the fiercest competitor on a professional level. I am thrilled to come to work for such a great organization and to be a part of it.”

Daroll Frewing, David’s father, will remain as US Bowling’s chairman of the board.

“Even though the lanes were tough I was confident I could get the ball close to the pocket,” Zimmerman said. “It was awesome. I’ve bowled in the Teen Masters all four years and to end my last year with a win was just a great experience.”

High school bowlers are now eligible to apply for a $1,000 scholarship. For additional scholarship information and guidelines visit https://bowl4life.com/pages/scholarship-application. The deadline for the scholarship application is May 1.

The Bowl4Life mission is to not only improve a youth bowler’s ability but to promote education coupled with a strong focus on integrity, honesty, professionalism and respect that will create a healthy competitive environment.

Some bowlers cannot distance themselves from their equipment ...
Also, for example, not of a few broken shoes.
Too many good memories.
Apparently you cannot throw them away.

What is the story behind these shoes?
Remains hidden ... or ....
Is it Grief? Hope? Triumph?
The end or the start of a long relationship?

For me bowling is a hobby, a relaxation.
And the experience of pleasure is the most important aspect. A social event, meet people, have fun with each other but also try to play a serious game.
It’s a combination.
Not only throw your bowling ball in the right way but being interested in the problems sometimes of the other. Simply put some questions to another like, How are you doing today? Everything all right?

Bowling is more than just a work out five, six times a week, lots and lots of practice, on all kinds of level participate in tournaments, or play matches on the cutting edge and just try to win a match at all costs ...

Bowling is more than being Moody if the ball doesn’t do what you want ....
Bowling is more than just play a match to win or lose ...

For me Bowling means something more. BOWLING? MES QUE UN STRIKE ...

It’s more than a strike ... ... It represents a way of life.

BURLINGTON - This past Sunday, I was bowling in my Adult/Youth Travel League. (BTW, one of the houses we travel to is Pickwick) I thoroughly enjoy this league. Not only do I get to try different house conditions, I am blessed with the young bowlers who participate.

If you want a shot of enthusiasm and a bolt of reality, bowl with youth bowlers. These kids are incredible! On my pair alone, one bowler recently shot a 300, another has rolled huge series/series in his career including 300's and another has been, the top ranking female youth bowler in the state! Watching them make me yearn for a fountain of youth. Their dedication, consistency and near perfection is a joy to behold. All this talent… and yet so kind, considerate and supportive of each other! If only adult league bowlers could give this gift to themselves. Enjoy, learn, listen, show good sportsmanship and live to bowl another day.

J.A.T. Takes A Two-Game Lead Into The Final Week

by David Yamashita

DOWNEY — The Brunswick Invitational was back on the lanes with just two weeks to go on the 46’ Kegel pattern. Five teams were within two games of the round lead with just ten points left up for grabs.

In the “A” match, J.A.T. was coming off their sweep last week to meet Cal Bowl who swept their way into the “A” match by leapfrogging over Keystone Lanes. J.A.T. was missing a couple regulars but their subs got the job done as they swept past Cal Bowl to remain in the “A” match next week. Anthony Santos was solid again for J.A.T. with a steady 622 and Jerome Jordan Jr. subbed in a nice 615 set while Ramon Torres had a great look for 649 for Cal Bowl.

In the “B” match, two 8-7 teams were both one game back of the round lead going into tonight’s action. Keystone Lanes and first-round winners Parkin’s Bowling Supply battled to a 4-1 result as Parkin’s took game 1 and looked like they had game 2 in control until a couple untimely opens dropped that game and they lost momentum dropping totals by 11. Herbert Jones was high for Keystone with a nice 609 set while Scott Poddig was solid for Parkin’s with a 627 set.

In the 5-6 match, DV8 was trying to come back after dropping 4 to Keystone while second-round winners Western Pacific were looking to build on their season win total. DV8 took games 1, 3 and totals to post a 4-1 win. Sub Andre Eubanks paced DV8 with a 581 set while Ralphie Ramirez led Blizz with 581. Team DV8 is once again in contention for their 3rd round win.

In the 7-8 match, Mikey Pizza prevailed 3-2 as they held off Alhambra Coin Center 242/623 and led DV8 to a 4-1 win over Linder Insurance. Danny shot 625, while Greg Neuer led Blizz Yogurt to a sweep of their own, as they took game 3 Super Sweeper Pot

The new Quantum Forest Green Solid and Quantum Fire Pearl feature the return of single density cores along with thicker shells using 3.5 times more coverstock. This improves durability, increases performance longevity, and creates more hitting power! Through the use of centred dynamic integrity, the core shapes for each weight have unique designs in order to control the core dynamics and the resulting hook potential in the 14, 15, and 16 pound balls.
