SHAWNEE, Okla. – EJ Tackett of Huntington, Ind., had four chances to throw doubles to take the lead, but in the end, he won his second Professional Bowlers Association major title in the 52nd FireLake PBA Tournament of Champions Sunday at FireLake Arena thanks to an unexpected error by his opponent.

Tackett, at age 24, defeated 18-time PBA Tour champion Tommy Jones of Simpsonville, S.C., 208-202, striking on seven of his first eight shots to build an insurmountable lead after Smallwood left splits he couldn’t convert in the first and fourth frames.

Jones advanced to the title match, defeating Barrett in the semifinal match, 248-216, rolling a late string of six strikes to overcome Barrett’s early eight-pin lead.

PBA players begin competition in the United States Bowling Congress Masters, PBA’s third consecutive major championship in February, on Tuesday at The Orleans Bowling Center in Las Vegas. The Masters qualifying rounds will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday to determine the 63 players who will join defending champion Anthony Simonsen of Austin, Texas, in the three-game, double-elimination match play rounds Friday and Saturday. The step ladder finals will air live on ESPN on Sunday, Feb. 26, at 10 p.m.

All qualifying and match play rounds of the Masters will be live streamed on PBA’s Xtra Frame online bowling channel. Visit xtraframe.tv for subscription information. Sunday’s finals also will be live streamed on ESPN and the WatchESPN app.

LOS ANGELES – In a championship match that was decided in the 10th frame, the doubles team of nine-time Los Angeles Clippers All-Star guard Chris Paul and 18-time PBA Tour champion Chris Barnes won the State Farm CP3 PBA Celebrity Invitational at Lucky Strike LA Live in downtown Los Angeles.

Barnes and Paul beat the team of Boston Red Sox All-Star outfielder Mookie Betts and 18-time Tour winner Tommy Jones, 187-179, in the eighth edition of the event which benefits the Chris Paul Family Foundation. The pro/celebrity competition aired Friday night on ESPN.

In a back and forth alternate-frame match, Barnes converted a crucial 2-4-10 split in the eighth frame to maintain a four-pin lead. In the ninth, the Paul/Barnes team lost the lead when Paul left the 3-9 and failed to make the spare. That left the open door for Betts who converted a spare in the ninth to regain a five-pin lead heading into the 10th.

“That made me nervous,” Paul said about the championship match. “When I missed that spare in the ninth frame I knew that was big; it gave the momentum back to them. I thought that might have ended it right there but when Chris (Barnes) said we still had a chance, I had confidence he could do it.”

Jones made a spare and finished with a seven-count on his final ball in the 10th frame, giving Barnes an opportunity to win the match with a double. Barnes took advantage by striking out in his 10th frame to seal the victory.

“That match had everything you could imagine,” Barnes said. “Ups and downs, strikes, spares, opens, splits, you name it. Whenever you bowl in a doubles or team format you don’t want to let the other players down. I felt like we had an opportunity. Just like every situation where I need to strike, I just had to tell myself to breathe.”

For Paul it was his third win after winning in 2010 and 2011 with Jason Belmonte as his partner. It was Barnes’ second title after winning with television personality Chris Hardwick in 2013.

Betts and Jones earned their berth in the final with a 177-153 win over the defending champion team of PBA Hall of Fame Pete Weber and former NFL All-Pro receiver Terrell Owens.

“I’ve wanted to bowl in this for a long time and it was everything I expected it to be,” said Betts. “It was a lot of fun. I’m a little disappointed, but you have to hand it to them. They (Paul and Barnes) did what they needed to do to win.”

The finals began with Jones and Betts beating the team of Grammy-nominated DJ Khaled and 2016 PBA Player of the Year EJ Tackett, 172-147. The Betts/Jones team then beat the team of Denver Broncos running back CJ Anderson and 11-time Tour winner Sean Rash, 201-183, setting up the semifinal match with Weber and Owens.

Preceding the semifinal match was the Celebrity All-Star Clash that also included Paul’s Clippers teammates Austin Rivers and Luc Mbah a Moute as well as Black-ish star Miles Brown and actor JJ Jackson. Bett’s dominated the best-ball competition, where the lowest count on a single shot was eliminated by throwing six consecutive strikes. He outlasted the nine-player field by beating Jackson who left a seven count in the final frame.

L.L. Bean to Sponsor 2017 PBA League Elias Cup at Bayside Bowl
Expanded Portland, Maine center also will host MaineQuarterly.com Roth/Holman Doubles Championship

PORTLAND, Maine - Bayside Bowl and the Professional Bowlers Association announced Wednesday that Bayside Bowl will host the 2017 L.L. Bean PBA League Elias Cup, sponsored by one Maine’s best-known brands, and the MaineQuarterly.com Mark Roth/Regis Holman PBA Doubles Championship in April.

“Bayside Bowl is excited to welcome L.L. Bean as the title sponsor of this year’s PBA League Elias Cup, sponsored by one Maine’s iconic brands,” said Justin Alfond, co-owner of Bayside Bowl. “We are also thrilled to continue our partnership with the Maine Office of Tourism. We couldn’t have picked better partners to showcase the best of Maine to the country.

“The Celebrity Bowl and the Portland community can’t wait for the Professional Bowlers Association to come back to town,” said Charlie Mitchell, Bayside Bowl’s manager-partner. “The Elias Cup and the Roth/Holman Doubles Championship showcase the world’s best bowlers, most passionate fans and incredible sponsors that realize what a great deal this event is for our state.”

“We’re super excited to be partnering with two great organizations, the PBA and Bayside Bowl, on this fun, unique event,” said Chuck Gannon, L.L. Bean’s corporate advertising manager. “This is a rare opportunity right in our own backyard, so we’re really happy to be involved. Plus, bowling is a great activity for folks of all ages, especially families.

An expansion of Bayside Bowl from its original 12 lanes to 20 lanes, plus the installation of a mezzanine and bar overlooking the new construction that is currently nearing completion provide the PBA and Bayside Bowl with an opportunity to also bring the Mark Roth/Regis Holman PBA Doubles Championship to Maine as part of the 2017 program, which will give more PBA players a chance to bowl in Maine.

“The PBA is fired up to bring the Elias Cup back to Maine and to showcase for the first time the Roth/Holman Doubles Championship as part of our program at Bayside Bowl,” said PBA CEO and Commissioner Tom Clark. “Bayside Bowl has the best audience in bowling and our players love Portland.”

The entire event will take place from April 9-16. The MaineQuarterly.com Roth/Holman Doubles Championship will be aired live on ESPN on April 16 at 1 p.m. ET. The L.L. Bean PBA League Elias Cup will air on ESPN on four consecutive Sundays at 1 p.m. following the doubles telecasts: April 23 and 30, May 7 and May 14. PBA Founding Member, Long-Time Tournament Host Proprietor Darrell Ducat Dies

The PBA has learned of the death Tuesday of long-time PBA National Championship host Darrell Ducat, the former proprietor of Imperial Lanes in Toledo, Ohio. The 91-year-old patriarch of the well-known Ducat family (at left in photo) was living in Florida where he and son Larry were operators of Spanish Springs Lanes in The Villages, the host center for the upcoming PBA50 UnitedHealthCare Sun Bowl in the Villages, presented by Radical, April 22-25.

Darrell Ducat, a PBA founding member, became the oldest player ever to bowl in a PBA tournament when he competed in the 2013 PBA50 Sun Bowl at Spanish Springs Lanes at age 87.

The Ducat family hosted more than 30 PBA tournaments over the years at bowling centers they owned in Toledo, Detroit, Winter Haven and The Villages. The PBA hadn’t appeared in the Villages since 2001 when the Ducats brought the PBA back to The Villages in 2009.

Larry Ducat said he is working with the PBA to host a celebration of Darrell Ducat’s life when the PBA50 Tour visits The Villages in April.

“To my family and friends, I would like to thank you for your support,” Scroggins said. “I’m so proud to be a PBA Hall of Famer,” he continued. “I never thought I’d be standing up here.”

Speaking of himself, he said, “It’s really, really cool to even be considered.”

Scroggins also thanked his travelling roommates for “letting” him win his Tournament of Champions title, and he thanked fellow hall of famer Danny Wiseman for letting him win his 10th title, which made him hall of fame-eligible.

“I thank the PBA for providing the stage, the playground for me to go out and live out my dream,” Goebel said. “I honestly don’t know if I’m deserving when I think about the great players who are in the hall, but I thank you for putting me in with them.”

“I'm proud of what we accomplished,” he added. “It was Mark’s commitment to the PBA and his leadership that made our Hall of Fame. The intervention of Peters and his partners, Gerberich said, “was a godsend. Without them there wouldn’t be a PBA today.”

WINNETKA – “Black Beauty” is showing its age and it’s not a pretty sight.

After more than 55 years of devoted service, Jerry Simmons’ prehistoric Brunswick bowling ball has fallen on hard times.

Through the years, the ball has sustained its share of nicks and bruises. But now . . .

“A big chunk came out of it and I don’t know when it happened,” reported Simmons, one of the leading bowlers in Tuesday’s “Comedians” league at Winnetka Bowl.

“For right now, I’m still bowling OK, so I’m not concerned about it.”

Simmons, who averages a solid 173, says Ray Plasse – the anchor on his Jerryatrics team – has been “pushing me to get a new ball. And I might check it out this summer, but for right now, the ball still works for me.”

Five years ago, Simmons recognized that his ball faced an uncertain future. “I fully expect one day to throw the ball down there and it will split in half,” he said then. Still, Simmons’ rubber ball has lasted and lasted and lasted.

“I’m just so comfortable with this ball with the weight and the finger spacing. I have a fear that if I got a new ball, they wouldn’t be able to drill holes the same way and it would change my grip and the ball wouldn’t work the way I wanted it,” said the right-handed Simmons, who hooks the ball gently and efficiently.

Here’s a history of Simmons’ bowling ball:

Simmons started using the ball as a Chicago teenager while sharing it with his younger brother, Al. Little did Simmons realize that the ball was riding in the trunk of his convertible Dodge Dart when he drove cross-country to California to attend San Fernando Valley State College (now Cal State Northridge).

When he arrived in California, (“the Promised Land,” says Simmons), he realized “Black Beauty” was in his possession. And it would stay in Simmons’ possession after his brother told him to hang on to it for as long as he had it with him.

The rest is history.

“I’ve used the ball all my life,” Simmons said. “It just worked for me. I used to average 150, then 160, then 170. Each year I seem to learn to pick it up . . . Each year I thought it was the highest it would be and then it would go up.

“A lot of people come in with four balls and hammer . . . and I just have my ‘Black Beauty’ ball and use it all the time.”

Simmons, a Santa Clarita Valley resident, uses a semifingertip grip with his index and middle fingers slightly inside the ball.

He has bowled a certified 269 and has recorded a 700-plus series.

Interestingly, Simmons’ brother got his bowling ball second hand and Jerry now treasures all the nicks and scratches on the ball.

Simmons said he has done nothing special through the years to keep the ball going.

“I don’t wash it. I don’t get it de-oiled,” he said. “I don’t put it in a machine that polishes it. I don’t wipe it down and don’t even use a cloth. It is what it is. I don’t do anything to maintain it.”

This isn’t the first time Simmons has kept around one of his favorite things for a long time. He preserved well his Nissan 280z, a snazzy sports car that he purchased new in 1981.

“I had it about 20 years and put in almost 500,000 miles,” Simmons said. “I have a tendency to hold things a long time that I like.”

How would Simmons feel if one day he’s forced to replace his rubber ball?

“I would miss it,” he said. “No doubt about it. It’s like part of my family.”

2017 TRUE AMATEUR TOURNAMENT (TAT) AMATEUR NATIONALS HELD ON JANUARY 30-FEBRUARY 5TH AT THE ORLEANS

by Randy Gulley

Congratulations to Donald Jones from Twenty-Nine Palms, CA on winning $20,000 with a 199 game in the TAT Championship match and congratulations to all the other 225 TAT finalists.

Donald was able to keep his ball in play and had a clean game while the rest of the finalists had a few opens while trying to win first. This was Donald’s first time to bowl this tournament, so his win was something extra special to him.

The TAT Finals were held on February 5th at the Orleans and here are the results:

Donald Jones  $20,000  189 & Under Handicap
Jorge Gomez  $10,000  215 & Under Handicap
Kevin Gagnon  $7,500  36-54 Age Division
Terry Leong  $6,000  55 & Over Senior
Bobby Campagnale $5,000  35 & Under Age Division

Another well run tournament comes to an end. I know the bowlers would like to thank the Tournament Director Jamie McWilliams and Edward Dufek, Wendy McPherson and the rest of the TAT staff for all their hard work during the tournament. Great bowling by the California Bowlers this year as they had three in the finals. Donald Jones, Kevin Gagnon and Bobby Campagnale. I know they are all excited about bowling in the upcoming TAT being held from July 3-9th this year.

Also, the bowlers would like to thank the Roto Grip Staff -Gary Huisenberg, Chris Schlemer, Lee Upp, and the rest of the gang that came down and sponsored the event. They were always available to answer questions, lay out balls, discuss lane play, or even let you talk their ears off about what was going on. An even bigger thanks for the live streaming of the finals. Great job!

There are six TAT Qualifying Divisions and one bowler from each division (except RNF) is guaranteed to the Top 5 for a shot at $20,000 and earn a minimum of $5,000.

THE PROFESSIONAL APPROACH IMPROVES TO 10-0
GRABBING THE LEAD IN THE BRUNSWICK INVITATIONAL

by Mike Cammarata

DOWNEY — The second week of round 4 in the Brunswick Invitational is in the books, and while there is still plenty of time to go, some teams are finding exclusive about the round while others are facing an uphill battle, as the teams start to separate in the standings.

Erickson’s Food Supply and The Professional Approach both came in with the night with 5-0 records and were matched up on the first pair of lanes. The Professional Approach put off to a quick start, with a close win in game one, 732-699. Games two and three weren’t as close, and The Pro Approach won those as well. They swept all five games from Erickson’s, improving to 10-0 winning totals by over 200 pins. Matt Schermerhorn led the way with a 228/595 series. Ivan Zavala picked up a 5-0 sweep for Erickson’s.

The second pair of lanes was a match between Century 21—My Real Estate and Keystone Lanes. Both had high hopes for the round after big starts last week. Century 21 had Bear hopes dashed, at least for now, after losing four out of five. Keystone Lanes improves to 6-2, which will help them for overall seeding as they’ve already won a round. Joe Lentine led the pin game, scoring a 232/660 series for Century 21. Jonathon Huff helped Keystone into the victory, with his 225-571 set.

Cal Bowl and Herzig Insurance battled a set on the third pair of lanes, and when the dust settled, Cal Bowl had improved to 8-2 for the round by winning the match 4-1. Ramon Torres topped Cal Bowl with a 208-204/703 series. Lee Lee of Herzig Insurance, was high on the pair with 202-194/396, but it was only good enough for one win.

The next match was a contest between DV’s and Crown Royal. DV’s, behind a 232-209/441 series from Kurt Arakaki, swept the match. With the sweep, they improved to 9-1 for the round. Kevin Valmonte added 211-588 for DV’s, while Dorie Schelske topped Crown Royal with a 510 set. With the sweep, DV’s moves all the way up to the first pair on take on The Professional Approach.

Syson took on Forest Lanes in the next match. Both came in to the match at 3-2, but after taking all five games, Syson moves to control status at #2. Gabriel Martinez led the way for Syson on this night with his 253/587 series. Steve Buske was right behind with a 212-214/530. Gap Lentinale was high for Forest Lanes with 214/588, but he didn’t have any help on this night.

Western Pacific and J.A.T. put their 2-3 records against each other on the next pair of lanes. J.A.T. came out of the match with four needed wins to help their chances for the round. A 222/588 series from Kevin Fujikane helped J.A.T. to the win, along with matching 577’s from Larry Campbell and Anthony Santos. Gary Doran was tops for Western Pacific with 211/370.

Parkett’s Bowling Supply and Bowlows were both trying to reverse from disappointing 1-4 starts in the night. Bowlows got back on track, improving to 5-5 with their four wins in the match. Billy Myers Jr. shot a 605 set, with 204 and 211 games, to help Bowlows to the win. Braddy Lucas led Parkett’s with 257-590 to help them to their lone win.

Smirnoff took on Linden’s Insurance on the next pair, and the match was all Smirnoff. They won every game, taking home for 237 pins. Arnold Cheesman had a 222-200/423 series to lead Smirnoff. Linden’s Grant bowled well, but couldn’t match his 200-190/390.

Los Allen Trophy swept past Gym W.B.A.T.T. Fitness, improving to 5-5 for the round. Both pairs were separated by over 400 pins as the Fitness team just couldn’t find a look on this night. Nick Rodgers and Dave algae was the high scorer on the pair, shotting 231/594 to help his team to victory.

The final pair of lanes saw action between Threadworks and G&G Janitorial. Both came into the match with 0-5 records after being swept on week #1. Threadworks got healthy in a hurry though, winning all five games to get back in the heat at 5-5. Paul Varela was the star on this pair, shooting a 295-940 set. John Valle had a nice 200-209-373 for G&G, but it wasn’t enough to get them in the winners column.

The final lineup was a far bit between two locals, and two teammates, as Arnold Cheesman and Vernon Adams split the pot with matching 222 games. The super pot is going to Paul Varela. He amassed $100 for his 255 game. The final squad went to Anthony Santos for his 227 game.

Kurt Arakaki earned a nice $200 for his league leading 209 game to win the Financial Advisors Pot. Anthony Santos was rewarded with 227 for $100. The action is heating up and the tension only builds as we get closer to the end of the season. As we run out of rounds to bowl, the teams feel the pressure to winer and more. The third week of the round will take place at Del Rio lanes next Monday at 8:30 p.m. Come down and check out the action and cheer on your favorite teams and bowlers.
