Kulick Earns Top Seed for TV at 2017 PWBA Fountain Valley Open

FROM FOUNTAIN VALLEY — Like any athlete, each time Kelly Kulick of Union, New Jersey, competes, there is the hope that everything will align physically and mentally, and a clear-minded focus will result in a successful outing.

The reality is that those days are rare, so when the lane condition at the 2017 Professional Women’s Bowling Association Fountain Valley Open allowed Kulick to play to her physical strengths, she was able to capitalize on the opportunity and offset the fact that she wasn’t feeling as focused as she was at this point in past PWBA Tour seasons.

This week’s 38-foot oil pattern at Fountain Bowl allowed Kulick to open up the lane and attack it in a left-to-right fashion, and being in her wheelhouse helped her get more comfortable with each round on her way to the top seed for the televised portion of the event.

She will be joined on the show by No. 2 seed Verity Crawley of England, No. 3 Liz Johnson of Cheektowaga, New York, and No. 4 Cherie Tan of Singapore.

Kulick and Crawley earned their spots on the show by leading their respective match-play groups Saturday at Fountain Bowl, with total pinfall, bonus pins included, determining the top seed. Johnson and Tan each rolled

Brian LeClair Wins Johnny Petraglia BVL Open

FARMINGDALE, N.Y. — Brian LeClair of Delmar, N.Y., won the PBA50 Johnny Petraglia BVL Open presented by Brunswick Tuesday to become the season’s first PBA50 Tour two-time winner.

LeClair defeated two-time PBA50 Player of the Year and eight-time winner Ron Mohr of Las Vegas, 245-195, in the championship match.

LeClair, who pocketed $12,000 for his efforts, said. “The key for me was a game than Ron,” LeClair said. “I don’t know that I bowled that much better of a game than Ron,” LeClair said. “The key for me was

Dallas Strikers Repeat as L.L.Bean PBA League Elias Cup Champions

PORTLAND, Maine — Crafty strategy and clutch shots at every critical turn helped the Shipyard Dallas Strikers successfully defend their L.L.Bean PBA League Elias Cup title at Bayside Bowl in a hotly-contested battle with the local-favorite L.L.Bean Portland Lumberjacks.

Led by player-manager Norm Duke, the Strikers won the singles, trios and five-player Baker format matches for a 5-1 victory over the Lumberjacks. The finals aired Sunday on ESPN.

Duke, who was named Mark Roth PBA League Most Valuable Player at the conclusion of the event, gave Dallas a 1-0 lead with a 209-247 win over Portland’s Ryan Ciminelli in the opening singles match.

Mike Krol is a Los Angeles-based musician hailing from Wisconsin. He’s a dude who loves bowling, pretzels and making his dreams come true with vision, hard work, and talent. His first two albums, “I Hate Jazz” and “True Fund” were self-released. Shortly after, he was signed by Merge Records (a label he’s followed for forever). In 2015, they released his latest album aptly named “Turkey” — basically, his third strike in a row. A couple of his pals (and 83 admirers) wanted to create a family where other Mike Krol enthusiasts could post stories, photos, and fan-art. Thus, MikeKrolFriend.Club was formed. We’ll end on a note from his friends to him: “Happy Birthday, Mike! We’re super proud of you!”

John Losito of Sun Valley Lanes in Lincoln, Nebraska, has been selected as the 2017 Bowling Proprietors' Association of America (BPAA) Proprietor of the Year.

The BPAA Proprietor of the Year Award is presented annually to a proprietor who has excelled at developing relationships within their community, including comradery with the local United States Bowling Congress association, while actively promoting the sport of bowling with a strong league base, by hosting tournaments, and participating in BPAA programs.

The individual, selected by the BPAA Awards Committee, runs an exemplary center and shares his successful business practices with the industry.

"I am truly honored to be the recipient of the 2017 BPAA Proprietor of the Year award," Losito said. "To be recognized by my peers, in the industry that I truly love, means a great deal to me. I really am fortunate and that would not be possible without my team at Sun Valley Lanes. I share this award with them, as well as all my friends, both near and far, that have helped make me successful."

Losito will be honored at the Annual Awards Luncheon on Tuesday, June 20, 2017, during International Bowl Expo 2017 at the Gaylord Opryland Hotel in Nashville, Tennessee. He also will be featured in the June edition of Bowling Center Management, and will receive complimentary airfare and accommodations to Nashville, as well as Expo registration for two. Sun Valley’s center BPAA dues will be complimentary in 2018.

"John is a perfect recipient for this award as he represents what every proprietor should strive to be," BPAA President Nancy Schenk said. "He is continually updating his center and developing and implementing new ideas. This year, John remodeled his center, adding a beautiful game room to his traditional 32-lane center. Sun Valley Lanes is a perfect blend of league and open play. Besides hosting the state high school championships, collegiate tournaments and a Professional Women’s Bowling Association Tour stop, this year Sun Valley Lanes also hosted the World Youth Championships.

"Tournaments of this magnitude are not always huge revenue generators, but John does them out of love for the game and not what they bring to his bottom line. For John, it’s about showcasing and growing the top competition at all levels of the sport.

"His commitment to the sport and the business of bowling are rivaled by few in our industry. His customer service is second to none, and I have modeled some of my own customer service initiatives directly from him. It is a great honor to award the BPAA Proprietor of the Year to John."

Each year, State Bowling Proprietors Association Presidents and State Executive Directors are encouraged to submit the name of a stellar proprietor in their state to be considered for the national award.

ESPN finals, all events

(detailed to be announced; all finals will be live streamed on ESPN3/WatchESPN app)

World Series competition officially begins with Cheetah, Chameleon, Scorpion and Shark Championship qualifying rounds Nov. 7-12. Qualifying will involve two-five game on freshly-oiled conditions, one squad with five players per pair, and one in six entrants cashing in each animal pattern event. Combined 40-game qualifying totals from those four events also will determine cashers who will advance to the final 20 games of PBA World Championship qualifying Nov. 13-14. The top 16 qualifiers in each of the four animal pattern events will then bowl single-elimination match play rounds Nov. 15-16 to determine the ESPN finalists in each event.

The 40-game qualifying totals for the four animal pattern championships also will serve as the basis for selecting the five American and five international players who will compete in a special USA vs. The World team event at the end of WSOB IX.

All ESPN finals are scheduled for Nov. 18-19 for delayed telecast on ESPN, but all shows will be live streamed on ESPN3 and the WatchESPN app as they happen. The ESPN telecast schedule will be announced at a later date.

Entries for the World Series will be accepted on pba.com beginning July 10. All players are required to stay at one of the three Eldorado properties: Eldorado, Silver Legacy or Circus Circus Reno. Room reservation information will be announced soon.

All preliminary rounds of WSOB IX will be covered live, exclusively on PBA’s online bowling channel, Xtra Frame, as well as on PBA Radio, PBA Mobile and all outlets included as part of the PBA Network.

MONTCLAIR — Xframe Bowling Tour visited Bowlium Lanes and had our first experience in an Eliminator Format. It proved to be exciting to the final match of four bowlers bowling a title game to become the Champion or finish in 2nd, 3rd or 4th place. 31 bowlers advanced to the Eliminator Finals which would eliminate one half of the field. Where you finish is where you will cash. The field of 31 cashers saw the prize fund pay $3,699. $50 entry with a re-entry $45. Reduced entries are $35 and pay 60% of the pay check. Hi Qualifier for the men was a HOT Justin Taino +217 and Mein Barcelona also HOT, led the ladies at +160. They received paid entries for the fine bowling!! We had many entrants (Two Squads) in our third event and MANY, new members again.

Round One or First Game of the ELIMINATOR FINALS: 31 bowlers cut the field to 15 bowlers with a reasonable +31 score. Then on Game 2 the 16 bowlers made the cut down to 9 bowlers. They bowled one game to cut to title game. We saw 27 make the grade to the FINAL game, four bowlers being Sol Cericos +50, Oscar Ibardaloza +40 and Mien Barcelona + 27. This game is where the top 4 would finish on lanes 25-26. The title game was on. They found a decent shot, and after 4 frames it was fairly close. Then Sol found a great shot and tossed a nice four bagger to take a lead with Mein still within distance. Palma & Oscar had a few problems in 4th at this time. But Mien and Ed had a chance. Mien had a nice double to close the gap but could not get another strike. Palma couldn’t strike. Sol staying clean was in control with a 268 score, hp. Included and won at home a nice $1,500 check, winning $1,000 1st plus the Xframe Bonus of $500. Pretty Lady finalist Mien with a 254 w Hcp. finishing second at $500. She did not enter the Bonus. “Easy Ed” Palma was 3rd, 240 w hcp. for $375 with the Bonus. Oscar Ibardaloza 227 w hcp. for $45 and 15th. Champion Sol Cericos hails from Arcadia and used a Mele drilled by Memo Rosales at Chaparral Lanes. He is married to Mary with children, Hannah, Maegan and A. J. Congrats Sol!! You did it good at Bowlium.

Mien Barcelona is from Lemoore married to a great guy and Xframe member Jo Jo with kids Matt, and Mico and a Grandson Elijah. Mien used an OPS Global drilled by Rich Shimoda.

Ed Palma is from Cerriros and used a Hammer drilled by Xframe member Ben Mach at Westminster Lanes. This is the first time we utilized the Eliminator Format and would like your feedback pro or con.

This week is a “Beat the Board Finals” at popular Keystone Lanes. We will utilize the Chameleon Shot!! TWO Big Squads Only, 4:00 PM and 6:00 PM. Bowl at 4PM with kids Matt, and Mico and a Grandson Elijah. Mien used an OPS Global drilled by Rich Shimoda.

The TV finals of the PWBA Fountain Valley Open will be taped May 23 during the United States Bowling Congress Queens and is scheduled to air June 20 on CBS Sports Network.

“Today, I just tried not to over-analyze,” Kulick said. “I took the bad shots for what they were and took advantage of the good shots and breaks. I was focused on rhythm and footwork, and it helped that the pattern allowed me to play my A-game.”

Kulick started Saturday’s Cashers’ Round at Fountain Bowl in fifth place but averaged 236 over six games to enter round-robin match play as the top seed. She then turned in a 4-2 match-play record, while separating herself from the rest of the field.

As the top seed, Kulick needs just one win to claim her first title since the return of the PWBA Tour in 2015, despite a combined 10 championship-round appearances during the 2015 and 2016 seasons.

Last year, she fought through an ankle injury. This year, it’s a recent grip change, while the stresses and responsibilities of life outside of bowling have left her less than prepared for the challenges of the PWBA Tour, though it’s something she’s working through with help from friends and family.

“I want to win again, and I believe I belong in the winner’s circle,” said Kulick, a six-time major champion, including the 2003 U.S. Women’s Open for her lone PWBA Tour title. “Right now, I’m trying to find the right balance. Things haven’t gone so well on TV. It definitely takes skill to get there, but, sometimes, you need a little luck to win. I feel like once I can get that first win under my belt, it will lead to the opportunity for more wins.”

Crawley, a recent graduate of Webber International, will make the first TV appearance of her young PWBA career. Her job as a paralegal has limited her PWBA participation, but she’s planning to bowl the remaining events in 2017.

Johnson, who was sick most of the weekend in Fountain Valley, qualified for her second consecutive TV show with a 258-226 win over Clara Guerrero of Pflugerville, Texas, in the Group B stepladder final.

Both players struck in five of the first six frames, but nine-counts in frames seven through 10 proved to be the undoing for Guerrero, who paced the field through the first two rounds of qualifying.

Johnson advanced to the Group B final with a 211-205 win against Singapore’s Shayna Ng, converting a 10 pin in her final frame to secure the victory.

Cherie Tan, the only left-hander to advance to the Cashers’ Round, defeated her younger sister, Daphne, 210-199, to earn her first TV berth of the 2017 season. Tan claimed her first PWBA Tour title at the 2016 PWBA Storm Sacramento Open.

Cherie Tan’s road to the Group A final went through Guerrero’s Team Colombia teammate, Maria Jose Rodriguez, who now resides in Austin, Texas. Tan stayed clean on the way to a 196-150 win over Rodriguez, who split four times in the match.

The 2017 PWBA Fountain Valley Open, the third of 14 events on the 2017 PWBA Tour schedule, featured 83 competitors from 11 countries and marked the PWBA’s first visit to Fountain Bowl since the venue hosted the U.S. Women’s Open in 1991 and 1992.

Competition this week began Friday with two six-game qualifying blocks to determine the 32 players for Saturday’s Cashers’ Round.

An additional six-game block Saturday morning narrowed the field from the 32 cashers to the top 12 players for round-robin match play.

The 2017 PWBA Tour season continues next week with the first major of the season, the USBC Queens at the Raising Cane’s River Center in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

CBS Sports Network will televise the stepladder finals of 13 of the 14 PWBA Tour events starting May 23 with the USBC Queens.

Go to PWBA.com for more information about the PWBA Tour. Qualifying and match-play rounds of PWBA Tour events are broadcast on Xtra Frame, the exclusive online bowling channel for the Professional Bowlers Association.

FRESNO – One thing can definitely be said about Jennifer Loredo. She knows how to have fun. The 14-year-old lefthander from Fresno also knows how to bowl.

First, the bowling part: On May 7, Jennifer put on a show at the 2017 Pepsi Youth Bowling Championships at Classic Bowling Center in Daly City. She won the girls’ 15-and-under division title in dominating fashion, scoring a 1,272 (198, 180, 199, 195, 252, 248) for six games. Finishing a distant second was Madison Bailey with a 1,991. It marked the third state title at the Pepsi event for Jennifer, who also claimed the girls’ 15-and-under championship in 2016 and ruled the girls’ 12-and-under division in 2015.

Interestingly, Jennifer was even more prolific in the Pepsi tournament in 2016, recording a 1,317 score, or a remarkable 219.5 average. That was at age 13! Jennifer, who “wants to make Team USA one day,” entered this month’s Pepsi event with plenty of momentum. The previous week, she bowled a career-best 289 at the Youth Bowlers Tour at Classic Bowling Center. She struck on her first 10 shots before leaving with plenty of momentum. Next big tournament for Jennifer: a national competition at the Junior Gold Championship in mid-July in Cleveland. One thing is likely: She’ll have lots of fun, win or lose.

Mayfield, Kuhlkin & Johnson: A PWBA Trio Each Touring for a Title

by Bette Addington, California Bowling Writers

With the PWBA (Professional Women’s Bowling Association) 2017 Tour recently kicking off, for its third straight year at Double Deckle Lanes in Roehrt Park and having a full slate of events to catch on, it’s the Bowlers, the touring PWBA members while they came to practice at AMF Southwest Lanes in Bakersfield between tour stops. Gabriella Mayfield, 23, who recently moved back to her hometown of Lake Isabella is traveling with Liz Kuhlkin, 23, of Schenectady, NY and Kayla Johnson, 27 of Washington, IL. This is the third year for all three to be on the PWBA Tour.

To listen to the backgrounds of all three of these young ladies, one couldn’t help but be inspired by them and their quest to have a successful professional career. Kayla probably has the most experience of the group as she had bowled in the majors of the US Women’s Open bowled in the BPAA/Majors before the tour came back. Kayla has also shot the first 300 game since the tour had been back, (2003-2015 bowling the majors of the US Women’s Open) and was on a USBC Queens Telecast in 2015 where she also shot the first 300 game since the tour had been back, and probably has the most experience of the group as she had the ambition to have a successful professional career. Kayla said, “It depends on the stop or the proprietor. We usually have a Pro-Am on Thursday before practice or it takes about two and a half, 50% of all paychecks in the event. So how did this trio decide to do the 2017 Tour together? “This is our first year we’ve all roomed together,” said Liz. “We all knew each other before the tour,” chimed in Kayla. “We all knew each other in college because we bowled together at a 200 average league in Lincoln, Nebraska.” Kayla added, “I just switched companies so we get to work with them before the stop.” Gabriella said she “bowls well in Wichita and Green Bay.” These two stops are scheduled in the middle of their tour. All three plan to be bowling all the tour stops.

When asked how many balls each of them takes on tour, Liz said, “15-20.” Gabriella said, “13 I just switched companies and was on a USBC Queens Telecast in 2015 where she also shot the first 300 game since the tour had been back, and probably has the most experience of the group as she had the ambition to have a successful professional career. BURBANK — There are times when we get news we just don’t want to hear. I received one today. A dear bowling friend passed away. He was mentioned in a past article when we spoke about fantastic league secretaries. His name was Mitch and he was an avid bowler, most recently at Mission Hills Bowl. Not only was Mitch a great bowler, he was a kind and caring man. I learned a lot from him over the years and it wasn’t always about bowling. He would often share old photos of his bowling teams from the past. When the guys would wear real bowling shirts with a sponsor and often wore matching trousers as well! We would laugh together and long for the good old ways of bowling. Yes, I meant ways, not days. Mitch, I will never forget your friendly smile and the lessons you shared with me. You will forever be missed.

Jay Disney League: 646, Josie Pemberton 667.

Senior Swingers: me. You will forever be missed.

BOWLING WINS THE FIFTH ROUND OF BRUNSWICK INVITATIONAL TWO TEAMS HAVE A SHOT AT THE WILD CARD WITH ONLY ONE WEEK TO GO

by Mike Cammarata

DONKEY — The team from Bowlia had led the majority of the final round in the Brunswick Invitational, only to be chased down by Herzog Insurance over the last couple of weeks, setting up a showdown between the two on the final night of the round. In addition to those two teams, both Century 21 — My Real Estate and Cal Bowl were lacking just a couple games behind, hoping for a split on the top pair that would allow one of them to sneak in.

Bowlia bowled first blood in the match, taking game #1 by 18 pins, 704-686. Dean Sanderson led the way with 201. Herzog Insurcance came back to take the 2nd game, and a 10 pin lead for totals behind a 211 game from Lee Liu. If all came down to the final game, and Bowlia wasn’t to be denied. It was Dean Sanderson pacing the squad yet again, shooting a 221 game (608 series) to help Bowlia win the game and totals. The four wins gave them 25 in the round, which eliminated Cal Bowl and forced Century 21 to sweep to keep their hopes alive.

Century 21 wasn’t able to get the sweep they needed from Cal Bowl. In fact, they got swept, although the match was much closer than the result indicated as a couple of games came down to the fi-

Linder Insurance was out contention for the round, but is in a tight battle for the wildcard position. That tight battle had to make losing the first game by only pin sting quite a bit. GCJG pulled out the first one, 506-505, behind a 241 game from Dan Gartin. Linder’s came back to win the next two games and totals, giving them four wins for the night. Eddie VanDaniker led Linder’s Insurance with 218.

J.A.T. took 3½ games from Erickson Food Supply but needed a little more to remain in contention for the wildcard spot. An-

Western Pacific still has a chance at the #2 overall seed, after taking four games from Parkin’s Bowling Supply. Ralphie Ramirez led Western Pacific with 216-222-226/664. As far as the round winners go, Keystone Lanes and Sycon-

United Western still has a chance at the #2 overall seed, after taking four games from Parkin’s Bowling Supply. Ralphie Ramirez led Western Pacific with 216-222-226/664. As far as the round winners go, Keystone Lanes and Sycon-

The wildcard is on the line with a match between Cal Bowl and Sysco. The second seed is on the line with a match between Century 21 and Linder’s Insurance. And, with substantial money separating every position in the standings, all the other matches will still matter for those year end prize envelopes even if they don’t have playoff implications. The matches start at 8:30 at Del Rios Lanes.
