Venerable Stars & Strikes Newsmagazine Looks at Uncertain Future
by Fred Eisenhammer

ROCKWALL, Texas – Jim Goodwin says that publishing the Stars & Strikes Bowling Newsmagazine has been a "labor of love" and "we're doing our best to keep it afloat."

Goodwin concedes the final edition of the venerable publication may be down the road. "It's not official," he says. "We don't know yet. We are going to Bowl Expo where we might get some new ideas."

The Stars & Strikes, billed as "America's Bowling Newsmagazine, the only national bowling tabloid in the U.S.A.," is published monthly by Goodwin and his wife, C.J., who are the magazine's co-owners and publishers.

Goodwin says that his wife will make the final call on the magazine's fate. C.J. currently "lays out the sections and puts it together," he says. Jim writes a monthly column for Stars & Strikes, now in its 27th year.

State Tournament Hits Midway Point Perfection Continues at Country Club Bowl Weekend Highlights for May 19-21
by Tina Martin, California Bowling Writers

SAN RAFAEL — Country Club Bowl and Marin County rolled out the welcome mat for a warm weekend end of fun, socializing and competitive weekend of bowling.

To fuel up those 8am squad bowlers starting at 7am, the restaurant located inside Country Club Bowl provides an $8.99 special of Scrambled eggs, sausage, country potatoes and pancakes, orange juice and coffee. Nice way to start your day.

For those "working" the event, it starts at 6am. Everyone knows their job for each weekend. The mechanic is at the Center to start of ceiling while the lane certification committee members from the MCUSBC daily check the lanes by 6:30. Bryan Goebel Wins PBA50 Miller Lite Players Championship For First PBA50 Tour Title
Goebel beats fellow PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III 264-230 in title match

INDIANAPOLIS – Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer Bryan Goebel of Shawnee, Kan., a 10-time winner on the PBA Tour, won the PBA50 Miller Lite Players Championship Tuesday for his first title on PBA’s tour for players 50 and over.

Goebel won the first major of the 2017 season by beating fellow hall of famer and stepladder finals top qualifier Parker Bohn III of Jackson, N.J., 264-230, in the championship match at Woodland Bowl.

"I feel so fortunate to win because it’s so tough with all the great players we have out here," said Goebel, who was inducted into the PBA Hall of Fame in February. "I had a very rewarding career on the PBA Tour but it’s a very special honor to be part of that club that has won titles on both the PBA Tour and PBA50 Tour."

June edition. The magazine prints up to 5,000 paper editions a month and also emails a few thousand digital versions of the publication to bowling centers and pro shops around the U.S. and abroad.

Most bowling publications have seen better days. The Stars & Stripes is just another on a long list.

“ar old days, we had a lot of pages, anywhere between 40 and 50,” Goodwin says. “It’s dwindled to 12 and 16 in recent years.”

Goodwin has more than a lifetime experience in the bowling industry. For four years, he and C.J. owned a 26-lane bowling center in Dallas called Circle Bowl, and he has managed several centers.

“had been an accomplished bowler, starting at age 8, a Professional Bowlers Assn. member for many years averaging over 200 for more than 30 years,” which he says is “no big deal” these days.

Goodwin, with C.J. at his side, also spent 20 years working with the Professional Women’s Bowling Assn., mostly overseeing its regional program, and they were media directors for Pinnacle Events, owners of the Las Vegas-based Mini Eliminator Tournaments and The Generation Pro Bowlers Tour.

In 2011, he received the Mike Hennessy Bowling Writers Assn. of America Award of Merit. The award honors “sportswriters who have contributed to the betterment of bowling by educating the public both general and sports specific of the accomplishments of those involved in the game as well as offering thoughtful and provocative commentary on issues that affect the direction and future of bowling.”

He wrote for the Bowlers Journal magazine for more than a decade and is currently one of the featured writers for the monthly International Bowling Industry magazine, which is based in Southern California.

Goodwin was a lifetime member of the board of directors of the BWAA (now International Bowling Media Assn.) in addition to serving as the group’s president. He is now an IBMA life member and was inducted into its Hall of Fame in 2016.

Through it all, he and his wife have kept the Stars & Stripes going – he credits C.J. with doing the hard work that has made it last so long. He concedes that they would be open to selling the paper to the right person.

“Some young person wanted to buy it, they could get it for a song,” he said. “But I don’t know if there is anyone who would want to operate it as a labor of love the way we and many other papers have. We would love to find someone that could keep it going and find a way to take advantage of the new media tools available to make it a viable business again.”

Whatever happens with Stars & Stripes, the Goodwin’s say they have enjoyed the ride. “We’re just going to take it wherever it goes. No matter what happens, it’s a lot of fun doing it,” he says.

end of the match to seal the win. Goebel’s win came in his 51st PBA50 Tour tournament. His previous best finishes in five full seasons were two runner-up finishes which came in 2013 and 2015.

“What makes it special is you want to beat the best and Parker is one of the best,” said the 55-year-old Goebel. “It’s a huge relief to finally get that first win and to beat a great player like Parker in a major, that makes it that much more satisfying.”

For Goebel, the Miller Lite Players Championship win was his second major title on the national stage. He won the PBA Tour’s PBA Tournament of Champions in 1998. As the No. 2 qualifier for the finals, Goebel advanced to the title match by beating PBA50 Tour rookie Michael Haugen Jr. of Phoenix, 200-181, in the semifinal match. Haugen, a five-time PBA Tour winner who qualified fourth for the finals, was making his third championship round appearance of the season and tied his best finish of third.

In the opening match Haugen beat No. 5 qualifier Scott Greiner of Platte City, Mo., 238-159, and then defeated No. 3 qualifier Bob Learn Jr. of Erie, Pa., 222-190, to advance to the semi-final match against Goebel.

Learn, who dominated qualifying by averaging 245, was trying for his fourth career PBA50 Tour title while Greiner was trying for his first win.

The next stop for the PBA50 Tour is Harvest Park Bowl in Brentwood, Calif. for the PBA50 Northern California Classic presented by MOTIV May 28-31.

Calendar brought to you by California Bowling Writers (www.calbowlingwriters.org)
In the one important match of the night, Cal Bowl needed one point to lock up the last playoff spot facing Linder’s Insurance. Cal Bowl snuck out a first game win and locked up their roll off position. Cal Bowl will face 5th seed Bowlism in the first match on the Round 1 House shot.

Keystone Lanes locked up the overall #1 seed for the roll-offs with a 1-4 decision against Sysco who needed the sweep. Eddie VanDaniker’s 265 second game helped lift Keystone to the big one win. Keystone will sit and wait for the Championship Match while Sysco will meet the winner of Sunday morning’s quarterfinal match.

Other high scores included Ramiro Garcia 657, Ramiro Garcia 657, Paul Varela 644, Buddy Lucas 638, Mike Mellick 637, Ralphie Ramirez 635, Dean Anderson 623, Chris Heffner 603, Steve Brode 594, Eddie VanDaniker 593, and Dave Schiada 592.

Sidepots went to Paul Varela (235) and Ralphie Ramirez (246) for $575 each while the second game pot was won by Buddy Lucas 225 for $240 with Leon Ramirez (246) for $200 with second to Chris Hefner (244) for $100. Jon Huff won $490 in the Clean-30-Must-Go pot by posting a whopping 11 clean frames. Brandon Grant bounced back after a rough start for three strikes when it counted to take $1000 of the Strikeout Pot with the rest carrying over to next week’s sweepers.

Next week’s sweeper will feature one game on each round condition. The 10 teams in the top half of the league will bowl on one side and the bottom 10 will bowl on the other. Each game the groups will switch sides of the house and the left lane teams will move one pair left and the right lane teams will move one pair to the right. (Bowl 2 games on each side crossing with 4 different teams). The order of the games will be: Game 1 – 4th Round Nationals, Game 2 – 3rd Round 46’ Long, Game 3 – 1st Round House Shot and Game 4 – 2nd Round 26’ Short. Practice will start promptly at 7:20 so be on time!

Those of you who were not here to put in your doublets, pots and brackets this week MUST BE EARLY so everyone has a chance at a piece each game. Those of you who were not here to put in your doublets, pots and brackets this week MUST BE EARLY next week- everything will close when the lights come on for practice. Come out next week (early start time 7:20) and watch everyone bowl on every condition and for practice. Come out next week (early start time 7:20) and watch everyone bowl on every condition and take a shot at the big money on the line for sweepers!
