2017 CALIFORNIA PEPSI YOUTH CHAMPIONSHIPS
AWARDS $50,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS

The 2017 California Pepsi Youth Bowling Championships is one of the longest tournaments held with league-level qualifying competition in November and January. District Finals held in March at eight different locations over two different weekends and then those qualifiers enter the State Finals that were just held this past May. A total of 396 bowlers participated in the U8 & U10 Divisions and District Finals earned a FREE entry into the 2017 Youth State Championships to be held this July at Country Club Bowl in San Rafael and the first place finishers in the U12, U15 & U20 Divisions would survive through two rounds of qualifying and three rounds of qualifying for the U12, U15 & U20 Divisions (all qualifying levels were based on scratch scores). 55 winners in the U8 & U10 Divisions will earn District Scratch Scholarships totaling $8,005 and $10,763 will be awarded in District Handicap Scholarships to 159 winners in all six divisions.

We had something new this year and teamed up with Down Lane Clothing. They are a local SoCal shirt company and we sold custom sublimated California Pepsi jerseys.

The turned out great and best place finishers in the U8 & U10 Divisions.

Rocio Restrepo Wins First Title of 2017 at QubicaAMF PWBA Sonoma County Open

Baton Rouge, LA — On a very demanding and grueling condition, Rocío Restrepo of Huntington, Ind., who qualified for the PWBA Tour singles title in the U.S. Sunday, defeating EJ Tackett of Huntington, Ind., 233-194, in the PBA Xtra Frame Lubbock Sports Open Title at South Plains Lanes Saturday.

Kent, who won his only previous PBA Tour singles title in Saudi Arabia in 2014, locked out Tackett with a string of six strikes to finish the title match after Tackett struggled until the ninth and 10th frames to throw two strikes in a row.

“I had a game plan going in to do what I did all week, which basically meant making moves to the left and making good shots,” Kent said. “It looks like I made enough good shots down the stretch to get the job done.”

“I’m still trying to prove the win,” he added. “It means the world. It’s been a long time. It feels unbelievable. I haven’t been bowling that well lately, so I spent 15 hours last week practicing, putting in the effort to make sure everything was perfect.”

Kent, who won his only previous PBA Tour singles title in Saudi Arabia in 2014, locked out Tackett with a string of six strikes to finish the title match after Tackett struggled until the ninth and 10th frames to throw two strikes in a row.

Mika Koivuniemi is making his debut as a PB50 competitor in the USBC Senior Masters this week in Las Vegas. The Finnish native, who turned 50 on April 6, is a four-time PBA Tour champion including three majors. He retired from full-time PBA Tour competition after the 2015 season to become head coach of the United Arab Emirates bowling team. Koivuniemi, who won the USBC Masters in 2000, advanced to double-elimination match play in his Senior Masters debut after qualifying in 32nd place.

Dayton, Ohio, 211-197, in a match where each player filled all 10 frames. Pluhowsky led by one pin through four frames, but Branka delivered a pair of doubles down the stretch to take the advantage. Branka secured the victory with a spare in the final frame.

Pluhowsky, the only left-handed player on the show, defeated Colombian native Martia Jose Rodriguez of Austin, Texas, 222-205, in the opening match, which featured the most combined strikes of the three matches with 14.

All qualifying and match-play rounds of the QuibicaAMF PBWA Sonoma County Open were held at Double Decker Lanes in Rohnert Park, California, on April 28-29. The stepladder finals were held May 23 at the Raising Canes River Center in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, in conjunction with the USBC Queens and the finals of the PBWA Storm Sacramento Open and PBWA Fountain Valley Open.

Who’ll be the next player to challenge Wes Malott as “King of Bowling”? PBA fans are invited to help decide who “gets next” in trying to remove Malott’s crown in the renewal of the PBA’s exclusive Xtra Frame pay-per-view competition that will take place on Monday, June 26, at FireLakeLanding Bowling Center in Shawnee, Okla., preceding the start of PBAs’ Grand Casino Hotel & Resort Oklahoma City.

Malott, who dominated the original King of Bowling series held at Kegel Training Center in Lake Wales, Fla., in 2009, successfully defended his throne – and kept his crown – when he won the revival of the competition on April 12 in Portland, Maine, defeating reigning PBA Player of the Year Efren Tamelo and Australian Jason Belmonte, PBA Player of the Year the three previous years, with a 721 series. Tamelo had a 664 series and Belmonte a 640 in the three-game, total pinfall contest.

Malott, now 40, kept his streak alive in Portland eight years after dispatching Mark III, Chris Barnes, Patrick Allen, Walter Ray Williams Jr. and Rhino Page in five consecutive King of Bowling matches back in 2009 – the same year “Big Nasty” also was selected as PBA Player of the Year.

Fans will be asked to pick Malott’s next challenger from among a roster of recent PBA Players of the Year, except for Tackett and Belmonte. Beginning Monday (June 12), fans are invited to visit pba.com or PBAs’ Twitter account to vote for their choice of Tommy Jones (2006), Chris Barnes (2008), Walter Ray Williams Jr. (2010), Sean Rash (2012) or two-time PB50 Player of the Year Pete Weber as Malott’s opponent. Fan voting will close at 5 a.m. EDT (midnight PDT) on Friday, June 16.

The pay-per-view match will begin with a pre-game show at 7:40 p.m. EDT on Monday, June 26, with the match starting at 8 p.m. Fans can sign up to watch the match for $9.99 on xtraframe.tv. All money generated from PPV fees will be awarded as prize money to the winning bowler.

Speaking of Wes Malott...

Wes Malott finished fourth in the PBA Xtra Frame Greater Jonesboro Open Sunday in Jonesboro, Ark., but the most interesting story about Malott’s participation in the tournament had to do with his 13-year-old son Jordan Malott finishing in a tie for 74th place in his first PBA tournament appearance.

“He’s kinda funny,” father Wes said. “I signed (Jordan) up and I didn’t tell him. I don’t think I even told my wife. He didn’t know he was bowling until we were on the road and stopped to eat. He asked me why I brought his equipment along. He told me he didn’t want to bowl, but he’d been hounding me about entering local events, so I signed him up.

“It was good for him, it got everyone talking.”

Jordan Malott, Dad said, is already almost six feet tall.

“Hes wearing size 13 shoes, just like me.”

Jordan will bowl in USBC’s Junior Gold Championships in July. The past two years he has finished in the fifth through eighth group in the U12 Division. This year he’ll move up to U15 but “he’ll hold his own,” Dad said.

Regarding Jordan’s experience in Jonesboro, Wes said, “He’s used to winning, so he had a hard time. After three games, he was in third or fourth place. He beat me the first four games, I know that. But in games six and seven he shot 140s.”

“He knows a lot of those guys,” Wes continued. “He watches them on TV. He has a lot of respect for them, but I told him there’s no reason to be afraid, just go out and bowl, and he did it.”

Now the problem in the Malott household, Wes said, is that middle son Camden is already asking when he’ll get a turn. Camden turned 10 in August. And “Branka is seven, but she’s already showing signs, too.” When or if Jordan will bowl in another PBA event is an unknown because now it’s baseball season, Dad said, and “he’s very good baseball player, too.”
Private-Equity Firm Atairos Buys Bowlmor AMF for More Than $1 Billion
by Soma Biswas

Private-equity firm Atairos Group is paying more than $1 billion for Bowlmor AMF, nearly four years after the world’s largest bowling-center operator exited bankruptcy protection, according to a person familiar with the matter.

The two companies announced the sale, without disclosing a purchase price, earlier this week.

Bowlmor AMF was created from the merger of bowling chains Bowlmor and AMF Bowling, which was in bankruptcy at the time. The company has $577 million in debt on its books, according to its most recent earnings report.

The sale to Atairos represents a windfall for owners including Cerberus Capital Management, Credit Suisse and DG Capital, according to the person familiar with the matter.

Cerberus Capital and Credit Suisse obtained a 77.5% stake in AMF through their ownership of the company’s junior debt and by investing $50 million in a rights offering.

Bowlmor AMF owns 304 bowling centers in the U.S., Mexico and Canada. It acquired Brunswick Corp.’s bowling center business in 2014 for $270 million.

ENGLAND’S DOM BARRETT RETAINS LEAD IN XTRA FRAME STORM CUP POINTS RACE

England’s Dom Barrett, with a ninth-place finish in the PBA Xtra Frame Greater Jonesboro Open after third-and fifth-place finishes in the first two, has retained his lead in the Xtra Frame Storm Cup points standings after three of the seven events.

Barrett earned 18 points in Tamarac, Fla.; 16 points in Wilmington, N.C.; and 12 more in Jonesboro for a total of 46 points and a 12-point lead over Ef Tackett, who has finished third (18 points) and fifth (16) in the last two events.

Reality Check Classic winner Josh Blanchard is third, one point behind Tackett.

In each Xtra Frame Storm Cup event, the top 20 players earn points toward a pool of $50,000 in bonus prize money that will be awarded to the top five players at the end of the series. To date 41 players have earned points.

Bill Lew Lies Up Another Family Milestone

BY FRED EISENHARDT

WINNETKA – It’s been a real Lew-Lew of a season for one elite bowling family. On June 1, Bill Lew blasted his first sanctioned perfect game as part of a sizzling series. Lew, a 68-year-old right-hander, recorded his gem three months after his son, Adam, 34, blistered his first 300 in December.

Not to be forgotten is Amy Lew, Bill’s daughter, Amy, 33, with her textbook form, recently blasted a 257 en route to winning her league’s women’s Sweepers title. Adam, incidentally, won his league’s men’s Sweepers championship.

It was a clean Sweep for the Lew brother-and-sister combination.

That wouldn’t come as a big surprise. Bowling 300s is a family affair for the Lews.

“With 40 to 50 people behind me supporting me, the last thing I wanted to hear was, ‘I’m so proud of him,” Amy says. “He’s definitely an inspiration to become a better bowler. He works so hard on his game and his scores show it.”

Sweepers title. Adam, incidentally, won his league’s men’s Sweepers championship.

A longtime friend and “One of the Good Guys” stepped up and won the latest Xframe Event at Carter Bowl on a tough shot to take home a nice $1,500 1st place with the Xframe Bonus. Tres had a 681 w/ Hcp. He edged Joevin Bolanos (runner up) 661, good for $750 and Pretty Jaimee Pamintuan was 3rd 631 for $375.

William Ele 625 $150 and Thomas Licauco 624, $125 rounded out the top five finishers.

The scoring was tough at Carter but some found a decent shot inside to score and compete. Cut scores were Men +47, Ladies -21, Senior Men +17 and Senior Ladies -48 to make the beat the Board Finals.

It was a tough shot and many low games, but some of the bowlers liked it. Scores will not be quite as tough at Bowling Square!!!

The turnout was lighter than normal, 117 in two squads partially due to many members in Las Vegas for League Sweepers and other Big Events there.

After the tournament ended, Champion Tres Catalasan drew for the Match Game and drew a 194 making Don Quitangon a happy winner of $2,295.

He was only bowler to have matched the score. Don is well deserving, I have known him many years. Congrats Don!!!

Tres Catalasan is from Long Beach, he used a Hammer/Gutterball drilled by Mikey Villareal at Cal Bowl. He is married to Martie, also a fine bowler and Xframe member.

Joevin Bolanos hails from Tustin. He used a Pitch Black drilled by Cody Mendoza at Fountain Bowl. Joevin is single, gal!!

Jaimee Pamintuan is from Cerritos, an Xframe Champion! She used a SinisterRoto Grip drilled by Ben Mach at Westminster Lanes. Jaimee is single, guys! Her father Bert is a long time Xframe supporter and Bowler. Mom Virgie also a great supporter.

Saturday June 17 we are hosted by Bowling Square in Arcadia, a very popular center. We are looking forward to it then there will be a Bye June 24 then June 30 thru July 1-2 for our July 4th Event at Cal Bowl.

The “Ten Pin Fun Center has been a long time coming but it is here now,” said Rod Scott one of the 13 investors in the new entertainment center in Turlock that is in the process of being build. We stopped and had a good conversation with the owner of 277, Ray Hofer, last week as we were driving by Lowe’s in Turlock’s Monte Vista Crossings shopping center.

Scott told us that all the underground works for water, sewer, electrical has been completed. While we were talking Scott, the curbs and gutters were being poured and the black top is coming soon. One of the bowling centers metal buildings will be put up over the next few weeks and will be the first to go up. There will be nothing in the valley to compare with this complex. More details on this fun center in the coming weeks.
