Siti Rahman Makes History at PWBA Wichita Open

LAS VEGAS – Australia’s Jason Belmonte, a three-time PBA Player of the Year and USBC’s only four-time Masters champion, joined a significant group of PBA Tour champions who got an opportunity to bowl in the USBC Open Championships this year at South Point Bowling Plaza in Las Vegas, thanks to a change in USBC Open eligibility rules.

Having never bowled in the USBC Open Championship, and really having limited knowledge about how the event works, “Belmo” got an unusual, but very warm, introduction to the event on Wednesday.

According to USBC personnel, it happened like this:

Belmonte, who hadn’t made plans to bowl in the tournament, was still in the U.S. after bowling in the Grand Casino Hotel & Resort PBA Oklahoma Open, so he made a stop in Las Vegas and decided to put his name on the “sub board,” offering to fill in if a team needed a last-minute bowler. That turned into a very good situation for Rich Belcher, captain of “Round the Corner 1” from Naples, Fla., who happened to be searching the board while Belmonte was filling out his “sub slip.” So Belcher immediately asked Belmonte if he’d like to bowl with his group (which included “Round the Corner 2” companion team members Peter Johnson, who won the PWBA Wichita Open were held at Northrock Lanes in Wichita, Kansas, on June 2-3. The stepladder finals were held June 25 at the The Ashwaubenon Bowl in Green Bay, Wisconsin, in conjunction with the Go Bowling PWBA Players Championship in June, was still a team, and all of Team Malaysia are winners. This win is really prestigious for our country, Team Malaysia and our sports council.” Rahman’s title almost never came to be as she tied with Colombia’s Juliana Franco in the semifinal at 191. Who advanced to meet Sin was decided by a one-ball roll-off. As the higher seed, Rahman had choice of starting order and lane and chose to start the on the left lane. She left the 6 and 10 pins on her first offer, but Franco failed to top that, leaving the 1-2-4 combination. Rahman won the roll-off by a score of 8-7.

San Rafael — “Youth ARE the future of our Sport! All ages and abilities! A Lifetime of Memories!”

The youth bowlers and families rolled into San Rafael this past weekend, ready to ROLL! This was the first of two weekends of the event. It was 104 degrees outside on Saturday and the Center air conditioner and fans were running on high speed. Several came into Country Club Bowl with 2 roller bags full of three balls each! The youth were ready and their scores showed just that.

The unofficial results of the weekend are already posted on www.calusbc.com under 2017 Youth Championships. Some high scores definitely worth mentioning are: In Doubles-A Division, Cloverleaf Bowlers Patrick Dabato & Noah Tom rolled 1451 Patrick bowled 264/719 and Noah 269/739. GREEN BAY, Wis. — Siti Rahman became the first Malaysian-born player to win a Professional Women’s Bowling Association title by winning the 2017 PWBA Wichita Open. Rahman, the No. 2 seed, defeated Team Malaysia teammate Sin Li Jane, 221-170, to become the first Malaysian player to win on the PWBA Tour. The stepladder finals aired national-ly on CBS Sports Network.

Rahman built an early 31-pin lead after Sin opened the match with three consecutive splits, and strikes in frames four and five for Rahman all but locked up the victory.

The 26-year-old right-hander remained clean throughout the game en route to her first PWBA title. Along with earning the championship, Rahman also captured a spot in the season-ending Smithfield PWBA Tour Championship. “But, we are always happy for each other because we are all winners. 2 Takeaways From This Wacky Match in the Oklahoma Open SHAWNEE, Okla. — There was some strange action at this month’s Professional Bowlers Assn. Oklahoma Open. And none was stranger than a match in the championship stepladder finals between Rhino Page and Chris Barnes.

Now, Page and Barnes are two PBA stalwarts so one could expect pretty clear sailing and an exciting slugfest. The veteran Barnes is an 18-time PBA Tour winner; Page is a four-time PBA Tour champion. Barnes, the fourth qualifier, scored a one-sided 196-149 victory over Jesper Svensson to earn a shot at Page, the third qualifier.

Looking back, there was foreshadowing that some spookiness might lie ahead. First, Svensson raffled off three straight stepladder wins before his match with Barnes – yet he bowled erratically. Twice the left-handed Svensson misfired trying to nail the 7-pin on a spare attempt. Only his grittiness carried him to the championship stepladder round.

Svensson’s game really came undone against Barnes on the 32-foot Wolf oil-lane pattern and Barnes and Page demonstrated some bizarre bowling of their own in the following match.

Page was interviewed before his match with Barnes and it was suggested by one broadcaster that he seemed nervous. It probably figured; Page was wireless in the last seven games he bowled on TV and this tournament’s eight stepladder matches were being broadcast on ESPN. Further, Page hadn’t won a PBA singles title since 2009.

The result was that Barnes defeated Page, 206-185, to earn a meeting with second qualifier Jason Belmonte. But that routine score camouflaged the fact that the left-handed Page threw a gutter ball on his first shot in the fourth frame. And Page repeated the trick in the seventh frame – both times sliding the ball in the left gutter. Two gutters in four frames! That’s definitely pretty weird.

Barnes – yet he bowled erratically. Twice the left-handed Svensson misfired trying to nail the 7-pin on a spare attempt. Only his grittiness carried him to the championship stepladder round.

And Page repeated the trick in the seventh frame – both times sliding the ball in the left gutter. Two gutters in four frames! That’s definitely pretty weird.

Not to be outdone, the right-handed Barnes also had a couple of moments of misery. Barnes flat-out missed a 10 pin on a spare shot in the fifth frame – providing some life for Page. Then Barnes threw his own gutter ball on his first shot in the 10th frame. For whatever it’s worth, Barnes’ gutter ball didn’t matter much. Barnes had pretty much won the match by then. Still, three gutters in one game by two top pros caused quite a stir and plenty of raised eyebrows.

What bowlers can learn from all those gutter balls: Even the best of pros can perform like duffers at times. It doesn’t happen often, but it does happen, especially on challenging oil patterns. The sight of these top pros coming unglued should serve as consolation for those non-pros who occasionally throw a stinker of a shot. Those things happen. It even happens to the pros. Don’t sweat it. It likely will happen again.

Pros being pros, Page and Barnes showed the mettle of a champion during their match. Rattled by his first gutter, Page then threw another horrific shot, leaving four pins. But Page responded well to his next gutter. He calmly and determinedly knocked down all the pins on his second shot in the seventh frame to record a spare. He then rolled strikes in the eighth and ninth frames to keep his hopes for victory flickering. Barnes responded even better to adversity. After missing his 10 pin, Barnes rattled off a four-bagger from the sixth to the ninth frames to pretty much seal the victory.

So who has the gutes in the 10th? Barnes needed five pins to sew up the match. He struck. Then he struck on his final shot. Definitely a crazy match.

What bowlers can learn from how Page and Barnes responded to adversity: Top bowlers know how to bounce back. They shake off the bad shots and don’t let them keep them down. They laugh off their mistakes and renew their focus. It works!

Postscript: Barnes went on to win his third straight match with a 256-218 victory over Belmonte before dropping a 194-188 nail-biter to Marshall Kent in the championship match.

LAS VEGAS - California was well represented at this summers PBA Senior US OPEN. The Sun Coast Bowling Center hosted this season’s tournament and 167 professionals showed up from all ends of the planet. Junichi Yajima from Japan and Peter Knopp from Germany were there as well as 28 Californians.

Our bowlers represented nearly twenty per cent of the field and four of our guys were among the fifty-three competitors who cashed. The four CALIFORNIA bowlers who took home checks were:

1. Joe Goldstein (San Bruno) $1,350
2. Don Blatchford (Santa Monica) 1,270
3. Darron Peters (Temecula) 1,000
4. Marty Deh (San Jose) 1,000

Tony Rodriguez (Rancho Cucamonga), Mark Mazzulla (Brentwood) and Joe Salvemini (Nevada City) missed checks by just a few pins. Former California resident, Mike Haugen, won the tournament defeating Brian Le-Clair in the championship match.

Our guys competed against bowling greats Parker Bohn, Norm Duke, Doug Kent, Bob Learn, Brian Voss, Pete Weber, and Walter Ray Williams and held their own. Great bowling guys and thanks for showing that California bowlers are the best bowlers in the world. Also, thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting California bowlers.

Cal Bowl
2500 Carson St., Lakewood
1972 - PART 1

- Let's kick off 1972 with a few facts and fiction!
- GEORGE SNOW invited PRESIDENT NIXON to be his guest during the P.B.A. at BOWLING SQUARE. No response from the White House.
- JERRY BURDICK was misquoted by a Bowling News typist. A printed line read "JERRY was "chooking" his wife on the lanes". It should have read "JERRY was "coaching" his wife on the lanes."
- Remember when you could buy a speed-boat with Blue Chip Stamps? How much is a book of stamps worth today?
- MIKE FESSLER opened his Pro Shop in San Gabriel. He was the "man" in the San Gabriel Valley for many years.
- 160 Pros rolled the P.B.A. at the "SQUARE". 35 Hollywood stars bowl the "Pro-Am" plus the top P.B.A. guys. Twas the biggest show in Southern California. GEORGE SNOW was the "ring master."
- Frito-Lay Corp. sponsored a T.V. show called "Fritos Sports Club". It was aimed at kids 10 to 13 years old, to teach the fundamentals of sports such as skiing, ice skating, figure skating, basketball, tennis, gymnastics, football, bicycling and bowling. BOBBE NORTH was the choice for bowling.
- The name BUCKY WOY sound familiar? He was the man who handled the women PROS. The Commissioner!
- Question of the week was "Could DON CARTER win the DON CARTER P.B.A. stop at the BOWLING SQUARE?"
- Answer. No he didn't. A guy named BILL BEACH aced BUTCH SOPR for the win.
- According to the A.B.C., one out of every four persons in the U.S.A. bowled at least one game in the past year. That's 33 million people!
- A gal with an 111 average rolled a 111 triplicate at ORCHID BOWL. Girl watching was popular since the gals were required to wear skirts!
- A strange ad — "WANTED — an Experienced Lane Man or League Coordinator."
- Kentucky Fried Chicken in Birmingham, Alabama kicked off the 27th Washington Singles at KEYS BOWL. What a tradition!
- 100 women signed up to bowl at the W.W.B. at MERLE MATHEW's ANGELA BOWL. Female scorekeepers were hired for the first time when the A.B.C. rolled in Long Beach.
- BOBBE NORTH was "choking" his wife on the lanes". It should have read "JERRY was "coaching" his wife on the lanes."
Burbank – You didn’t hear from me last week because I was in Louisiana participating in the USBC Women’s National Championships. While the trip was fun and great, I met so many men and women breezy, female bowlers, the bowling was disappointing.

Every year, I wonder how the USBC can continue to put out conditions that are difficult for the average bowler to pride myself on being able to adjust to lane conditions but this was impossible! IF USBC continues to do this, I fear we will lose the women’s division. We need to work together to find bottom line: it was a very expensive trip to be so disappointing and I may just think twice before doing it again.
